

LITTLE BIT HAS A LITTLE BIT OF TROUBLE

IMBIBES A LITTLE BIT TOO FREELY AND WILL DO A LITTLE BIT IN JAIL.

Shortly after midnight last night cries of "Police," "Murder," "Help" and several others rent the air at the intersection of St. Patrick and Brounger avenues. The entire neighborhood was aroused and an investigation was started. Deputy Sheriff Jack May was on the scene, however, and arrested two colored "pussies," a female who goes by the name of Little Bit and a male companion named Estes, who says he came over from Goldfield for the purpose of attending the colored doings of last night at the Nevada theater.

Little Bit had been imbibing somewhat freely and fancied she had a grievance against Estes. But from appearances it looked as if Estes had a little bit of a grievance against Little Bit for he had chased her around the Tonopah block six times before she recovered her presence of mind to call for help. The exact nature of the trouble could not be learned so May locked both of them up for disturbing the peace and they will be given an opportunity of telling their troubles to Judge Atkinson today.

TO PRESENT SUMMER CAPITOL TO NATION

NEW YORK, April 29.—The plan of a number of New Jersey coast cities to present the nation with a summer capitol for the president has been given impetus by the offer of J. B. Greenhut. Long Beach and other cities had started a fund for the purchase of "Shadow Lawn," the $1,000,000 mansion built by the late John A. McCall, when he was president of the New York Life Insurance company, at West End, for the purpose of deeding the property to the government to be used as a summer White House for the president.

Before the fund was completed President Taft selected the place at Beverly, Massachusetts, and a few days ago Mr. Greenhut purchased the local property. It is understood, for $300,000, not knowing the plans of the coast cities. When he learned of these plans yesterday Mr. Greenhut offered to sell the property to the association of cities for $50,000 less than he paid for it, thus making his donation to the project $50,000.

MISS WINIFRED GREEN -- NOW AT THE BUTLER

"The Runaway Honeymoon" again drew one of those packed houses at the Butler last evening and as before, each and everything was greeted with applause. Little Winifred Green has made a hit with the theatergoers of this city and everytime she appeared on the stage she was applauded.

The play tonight will be "My Wife's Family" and is what might be termed a sequel to "The Runaway Honeymoon." In the "Honeymoon" there is a marriage—two in fact—and of course there is a mother-in-law. This aforesaid mother-in-law, one of the real kind that acts like she was disappointed in love during her early infancy, appears this evening and makes poor hubby's home life somewhat interesting. On this account the play will appeal to those who are married, have been married or about to be married. The plot is based on a secret marriage and after the arrival of the first born the fun commences.

The Allen Curtis company consider the piece their one great hit and guarantee a roar from start to finish. Everything in the performance will be new, that is new songs, new dances by that chorus, and even new tickets. Of course the chorus isn't new for that might result disastrously. The old one has made a hit in Tonopah and the angels who are usually present in the front row, swear that it is the best that ever graced the Butler stage.

Remember that the play tonight is a complete change from start to finish and will only be presented for two nights only.

BOLD INDIAN FIGHTERS AND THIEVES CAUGHT

SAN JOSE, April 29.—A search in which the peace officers of Santa Clara, Santa Cruz and Monterey counties participated ended tonight when the officers of Salinas telegraphed that they had apprehended John Schafer, Charles Skuse and George Hennessey, three youths who took to the warpath from San Jose yesterday determined to wipe out the last of the red Indians.

The three bold fighters stole a horse and rig in Santa Clara street in San Jose yesterday, filled it with fire arms of various descriptions, and then crossed the mountains thirty-seven miles to Santa Cruz. There they exchanged their exhausted horse for another, which they boldly appropriated in Pacific avenue in the Surf City, and continued the flight toward Salinas.

In the meantime deputy sheriffs and constables of every town in the three counties were notified and were on the lookout, while other deputies scoured the Santa Cruz mountain roads for the missing youths.

The search ended tonight in Salinas, where the lads were caught after appropriating a third horse.

DICK CROCKER RETURNS TO HIS LONDON HOME

NEW YORK, April 29.—Richard Crocker, former Tammany chieftain, who sails today on the Lusitania for Liverpool, said farewell last night to many old friends at the Democratic club. His parting message to his onetime followers was:

"I'm out of politics forever. All the world couldn't drag me into the game again. I'm coming back to America in November, just after election."

"New York is the greatest city in the world. All our American cities are superior to European capitals in their fire and police departments. It is not safe for a woman to walk alone in London, but you can't say that of our American cities."

"The only thing they beat us in on the other side is sports. The sports are more open in England. The laws here put too many restrictions upon them."

Since Mr. Crocker built several Japanese rooms into his house at Glencairn, Ireland, he has been wanting a Japanese servant. Such a one he is taking back with him, having found her during his stay at Palm Beach.

GENERAL HAINS TAKES STAND IN SON'S NEFENSE

(By Associated Press.) FLUSHING (N. Y.), April 29.—With suppressed emotion General Hains, the retired army officer and father of Captain Peter Hains, now on trial for the murder of William Annis, related the incidents of his son's boyhood, on the stand today. He said Peter had been driven mad by his wife's action and always has been high strung and nervous. He traced his career through from the early years to the Spanish war when he fought under his father at Porto Rico when he was "always in the way on the firing line."

DRUGGIST'S MISTAKE COSTS HIM THOUSANDS

NEW YORK, April 29.—Edward F. Miller, a druggist in the Bronx, will have to pay Mrs. Edith Dreyer $8000 and her husband $460 for doctors' bills and medicine. Mrs. Dreyer ordered Miller to fill the prescriptions two years ago, one for ergot and the other for lysol, a poison. In court she proved that he filled both bottles with lysol. As a consequence she was made ill and has not fully recovered. She claimed $10,000 damages.
